Individual Family Travel – Our 14U Tier 1 team will take 5 showcase/tournament trips. Four of these events are family travel trips. This means that Colorado Rampage or one of its team representatives will not sponsor, coordinate, or arrange for any part of player travel or accommodations. For family travel trips, we bill a fee of $320 which covers the costs associated with Coach travel expenses.

The final travel event introduces players and families to TEAM travel. All as airfare, hotel, and transportation in the competition city is covered. Parents are not expected to travel with their athlete. Additional travel trips may be added to the schedule.

Gear / Uniforms - Gear, including jerseys, socks, warm ups and workout wear is additional and purchased directly from our team store at time of team selection. All jerseys and gear remain the property of the player/family. (Est. $1000-$1500)

Insurance - Insurance on season fees (and travel if opting to include payment for travel trips during registration) is offered during our registration process, to cover injury and illness, and is mandatory for Tier 1 hockey players.
